

JHA Remediation

JHA Remediation specializes in providing full-service environmental construction and field services to a variety of clients. Our “Safety First” approach ensures that our clients safety requirements are met and exceed on every project while providing a quality product that we stand by. Our experienced staff has years of experience that lend insight for any project from design, to permitting, to implementation, to operation and ensures that the project is completed safely, on-time, and on budget.

Our Services

We provide quality and professional environmental remediation project construction and field services including:

- Concrete/asphalt cutting and removal
- Excavation/trenching
- Sub-surface piping/utility installation
- Concrete footings/pads
- Chain link, block, vinyl, and other enclosures
- Above grade system piping and manifolds
- Equipment installation/anchoring
- Asphalt and concrete resurfacing
- Well box repair/replacement
- System decommissioning
- Equipment relocation/mobilization

Specializing In

We specialize in both in-situ and ex-situ remediation projects including:

- Groundwater extraction
- Soil vapor extraction
- Injection/sparge (air, oxygen, etc.)
- Sub-slab depressurization
- Dual-phase extraction
- Excavation/removal of impacted soil

Health & Safety

Each team member receives annual training to improve their awareness and skills. These trainings include but are not limited to the following:

- 40-hr Hazwoper
- CAL-OSHA Competent Person Training
- Defensive Driving Techniques
- Equipment Operation and Safety Certification
- 8-hr Hazwoper Refresher
- Workplace Safety
- Client Specific Training
- First AID and CPR

Industries Served

Our professional staff has experience providing construction services for a wide variety of clients including those in the following industries:

- Aerospace
- Petroleum
- Large/small commercial
- Public Utilities
- Chemical Manufacturing
- Government Entities

